MR. LOUIS MERZBACH.

Representing the Eagle Pencil Company, of New York, went through our establishment Saturday, and his way of putting it was: "I'm astonished! You have a Printing Office as completely equipped as any in the State, and your work is first class, as good as any one does. The systematic arrangements, improved machinery, etc., surpasses some of our very best New York establishments. That ruling machine is the finest one I have seen." Mr. Morzbach travels all over the country, and knows what he is talking about, and really enjoyed what he saw. We do not handle his goods, because they are not in our line. He knew that. Glance through our place. You'll enjoy it. Don't say you haven't time, because you have; and if, when you have finished, you can say the few minutes have not been instructive, besides opening your eyes, we'll print you a ream or so of paper, "while you wait," gratis.
